

I am appalled at your efforts to allow domination of the media by a few large corporations. The FCC is supposed to insure diversity and freedom of expression. These efforts are big business oriented and anti-consumer. Look at the failure with radio. There is little diversity in radio when one company can ban musicians from 1200 radio stations. I urge Chairman Powell to stop this disasterous policy.